CONCEPT NOTE

The new National Education Policy (NEP) -2020 is aimed at developing higher education institutions in such a way that they directly contribute to the country's transformation into a global knowledge superpower. The new policy also envisages the need for an optimum makeover of the professional education systems too, including healthcare education system in India.

At present most of the Ayurveda institutions are running in the early stage of development, and the overall scenario of Ayurveda education needs to be envisioned to face the challenges ahead. They must make required implementations of reforms suggested by NEP in their education policy to fulfill the global quality education standards. To learn about the reforms, it aims to bring about & to change the landscape of Ayurveda learning. A single day regional workshop on the proposed theme will be instrumental in having the assemblance of professional educators and some of those involved in policy making on a single platform to enlighten the role & reach of National Education Policy (NEP) -2020 in Ayurveda education and to explore the plan for institutional preparedness for NEP-2020.
